

Welcome to the Johnston County Beekeepers Association, a chapter of the North Carolina State Beekeepers Association.

MEMBERSHIP

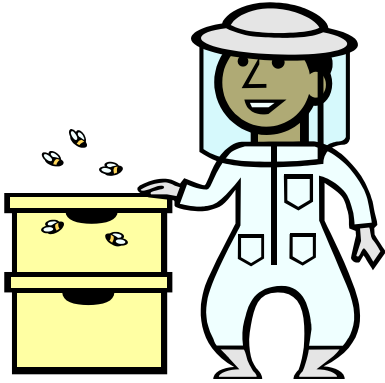

Chapter membership runs from January 1st to December 31st.

Membership privileges include officer eligibility, voting rights, and the ability to be listed on this website for swarm control, pollination services and/or honey sales.

You are invited and welcome to attend our monthly meetings, workshops and classes even if you are not a member.

Completed applications with payment should be mailed to the JCBA Treasurer or may be submitted at the monthly meeting.

Applicants are encouraged to also join the NCSBA. See Reference Page for the State's website and application form.
