

Summer Intern

JCBA has a summer Intern. Robert Storr is a junior at South Johnston High School. Robert will be learning all aspects of bee keeping including hive inspections, splitting hives, requeening, hive treatments, equipment building, crop pollination, moving hives for pollination, honey harvesting, honey extraction and bottling. The club members responsible for his training include May Markoff, Ron Lassiter, Al Hidreth, and John Converse.

